RATHMORE CREDIT UNION

Looking for a loan? Shopping around is well worth while!! There are huge variations in interest rates between money lenders, credit card companies, store cards, banks and credit unions. You should always be aware of the interest rate that you are paying and the total amount repayable. Late payment fees, set-up charges and early repayment penalties are just some of the factors that increase the cost of your loan significantly.

At Rathmore Credit Union our current interest rate is a very competitive 9.4% APR. We also offer loans with reduced interest rates. We do not charge set up fees. We offer free loan protection insurance to all members (T&C apply)

Some examples of Loans and Repayments:

€2000 over 2 years – Repay €21.02 per week - cost of credit €185.94

€4000 over 3 years – Repay €29.27 per week - cost of credit €564.72

€5000 over 3 years – Repay €36.58 per week - cost of credit €706.40

€10,000 over 5 years – Repay €47.76 per week – total cost of credit €2406.05

APR 9.4% Rathmore and District Credit Union Ltd. is regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland.

Two Teacher School Football Tournament: This is an annual tournament sponsored by Rathmore Credit Union and run between the Primary Two Teacher Schools in the parish. It creates great excitement for the boys and girls involved. The two schools through to the final are Raheen and Meentogues. The final will be played in Barraduff on Wednesday 10th June at 2pm. We wish both teams the best of luck.

Exam Time: The coming week will see the start of the Leaving and Junior Certificate exams. We wish all students sitting these exams the very best of luck.
