PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest: God's love lasts forever. Therefore, let us bring our needs before him with confidence

1. For Christians: that they may be known for their generosity to the poor and their hospitality to the stranger. Lord hear us.
2. For government leaders: that they may be generous towards refugees and displaced people. Lord, hear us.
3. For those who have come among us from other countries: that they may experience true Christian kindness. Lord, hear us.
4. For our deceased relatives and all the faithful departed especially, Michael Doyle, Fossa, Eugene McCrohan, Killarney and late of Caherdaniel, that they may share Christ's victory over death and enjoy the vision of his glory in heaven. Lord, hear us.
5. For our own special needs. Lord, hear us.

Priest: God of love, look with compassion on us as we journey along the paths of time, and when our earthly pilgrimage is over, welcome us into your heavenly home, where we shall dwell with you for ever. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

REFLECTION

Our size as human beings can be measured by the circles we draw to take other people in. The bigger the circle, the bigger the person. A strong person isn't afraid of people who are different. A wise person welcomes them. By shutting other people out we deny ourselves the riches of other people's experience. In the beginning God gave the earth its shape. He made it round. He included everybody. So should we.

FINAL BLESSING

May you never be ashamed to suffer for being a Christian.
 May you not be afraid of anything the world can throw at you, because Christ has overcome the world.
 May the Lord bless you with a noble and generous heart.
