16th June/Meitheamh: National Holy Wells Day There are around 3,000 Holy Wells in Ireland. Since early Christian times these have been seen as places of prayer and healing National Holy Wells Day invites you to become aware of how precious water is.

Action: Visit a Holy Well near you and pray for the protection of water. Invite others to join you and here is a special prayer when you visit a well.

Prayer for the Protection of Water

O God of all creation, teach us how to protect water on which all living beings depend, plants, animals, fish, birds, humans Help us to ensure that water may always flow freely and purely for all your Creation. May your Spirit soften our hearts and enlighten us so that we may act responsibly to protect water, the vital source of life in Our Common Home.

Fathers' Day: Pray for God's blessing on fathers, that they may be a source of love and life for all in their care.
