Thought for Today

“When the Sisters are exhausted, up to their eyes in work; when all seems to go awry, they spend an hour in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. This practice has never failed to bear fruit: they experience peace and strength.”

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time B

Today in Mark's gospel we have the storm at sea. It is one of the best known and loved gospel readings. The disciples are in a boat when an unexpected storm blew up and threatened to sink them. Jesus was peacefully sleeping in the stern of the boat. The disciples woke Jesus terrified. He calmed the wind and rebuked the disciples because of their little faith. The boat represents the Church, and the disciples represent us as we experience unexpected trials and storms in our lives. Jesus is the peaceful presence of the power of God in the Church and in our daily lives. He is our safety and serenity amid all the turmoil. The Gospel shows us that we can be living in difficult situations, but Jesus is saving us through it all. He is a beautiful healing presence if we keep close to Him, though these trials can test of faith. He asks us to trust Him just when everything seems foolish to do so. We believers, walk by faith not by sight. In the first reading, Job in his suffering has questions but, in the end, only finds his peace in God. We too have questions; why is someone we love taken from us? Why do Innocent children die of hunger in a world with so much food? God didn't create suffering or death or greed which come as result of our sinfulness. God wants us to have life and be at peace, but we won't receive these unless we trust and have faith in Him. Because He loves so much and sent His Son Jesus to die for us and be with us through His Holy Spirit building His Church, the 'barque of Peter'. Like children, who rust their parents without understanding what is happening, so too we must trust our Father in heaven to take care of us. We pray today: Sacred Heart of Jesus we place all our hope in you. Amen!
