EXAM TIME

Having moved recently into grandmother mode I'm out of step with the parents of children sitting exams in the month of June.

One June I watched an elegant grandmother sitting in a café, waiting for her granddaughters. They arrived wearing blue school uniforms and looks of exam weariness.

She stood up and enfolded them in large hugs and ordered hot chocolates with marshmallows on top.

We can do very little as parents as grandparents; we can't live their lives for them; we can't sit their exams; we can't expect them to be like us; all that matters is for them to be themselves and to like themselves.

But we can offer hot chocolate and hugs, and sometimes that's enough. ~ Anne Thurston
