Ordination of Revd Sean Murphy to th to the Priesthood. by the Most Revd. Ray Browne. Bishop of Kerry.

It is with great joy we look forward to Sean's Ordination to the Priesthood next Sunday. and his celebration of his Mass of Thanksgiving on the following Monday evening in Glencar church. Having his Deaconate Ordination and his Ordination to the Priesthood in the Parish is a great honour. One we will proudly remember. All are free and are welcome attend Seán' Ordination Priesthood and his Mass of Thanksgiving.

On Friday evening beginning at 6:30 pm there will be Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament for Vocation to the Priesthood and Religious life. In which we will remember Seán in prayer. In the meantime let us all remember our dear friend in our prayers all this week. Fr. Kieran

About Today

We are challenged by today's Gospel to stand ready for our Master's return in glory. We gather to worship God who sustains us all the days of our life, and beyond.

Introduction to the Scripture Readings

Wisdom 18: 6-9 These are some of the words used by the Jews to celebrate God's deliverance of them at Passover.

Hebrews 11: 1-2, 8-19 For the next few weeks, the second reading is from the Letter to the Hebrews, which is more a sermon on who Christ is, rather than a letter. In today's section, Abraham and Sarah are held up as examples of faith.

Luke 12; 32-48 Stand ready, we are told, for we do not know when Christ will return.

Seeing Your Life Through The Lens Of The Gospel, Jn6:41-51

1. Faith is reasonable but we cannot reason our way into faith. We have to be 'drawn by the Father'. We must be 'taught by God'. What opens your mind and heart to God's message?

2. When we label others disparagingly, we close our minds to what they are saying. The Jews did this to Jesus. Have you ever had the experience of being surprised by the wisdom of another when you laid aside your prejudices about her/him to listen to what s/he was saying?

3. No one has ever seen the Father except the one who is from God'. As Jesus put a human face on God and God's love, so → God's love today is mediated to us through one another. How have other people been sacraments of God's love for you? For whom have you been that kind of a sacrament?

4. The way in which Jesus became a source of life for us was by giving himself. It is when we truly give ourselves that we can be life-giving to one another. If we do not give of ourselves, what do we have to offer? How have you discovered the importance of

Dues & Weekly Contribution

A sincere thanks to all who have submitted their parish dues (Spring, Easter Summer and weekly their contribution. A number of Parishioners have yet to submit their dues and weekly contribution. I kindly ask them to do so during the week. Thank you.

Prayer for Vocations

LORD of the Harvest, BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call.

Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things.

INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving—for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people.

INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you.

UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen.
