PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest: God is the giver of all good gifts. Let us pray to him for our needs, the needs of the Church, and of the world.

1. For Christians: that they may be known for their humility and generosity.
Lord, hear us.
2. For those who hold public office: that they may not seek their own glory but to serve others.
Lord, hear us.
3. For the poor and disadvantaged, who have to take the last place in society: that they may be treated with respect.
Lord, hear us.
4. For the members of this community: that we treat others in the same friendly way Christ has treated us.
Lord, hear us.
5. For all the dead: that they may have a place at the banquet of eternal life.
Lord, hear us.
6. For our own special needs:
Lord, hear us.

Priest: Merciful God, fill our hearts with your love. Give us the grace to rise above our human weakness, and keep us faithful to the Gospel of your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

THE SEASON OF CREATION is a time to renew our relationship with our Creator and all of creation through celebration, conversion, and commitment together. The season starts on 1 September, the World Day of Prayer for Creation, and ends 4 October, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of ecology beloved by many Christian denominations. During the Season of Creation, we join our sisters and brothers in the ecumenical family in prayer and action as the world's 2.2 billion Christians come together to care for our common home. Creation is not given to humanity to use and abuse, rather, humanity is created to be part of Creation and to care for it. This year's theme for Season of Creation is "To Hope and Act with Creation"; taking the inspiration from the letter of St Paul to the Romans in chapter 8, "Creation is groaning". All resources are available by going to <https://www.trocaire.org/ourwork/working-in-ireland/parishes>.

Paul O'Raw will speak at both masses next weekend. Proposed rewilding plan for the church grounds will be on display during the week.

REFLECTION

There are those who give,
but only on condition that they receive something in return,
and receive it immediately.
There are those who give
on condition that they receive something in return
later on and with a handsome profit.
And there are those who give without expecting anything in return now or ever.
The latter are imitating the generosity of God,
who bestows his love on good people and bad,
and grants mercy to saints and sinners.

FINAL BLESSING

May you walk without fault and act with justice.
May your love not be mere words but something real and active.
And may you walk humbly before God.

"Kindness is the golden chain by which society is bound together"
(Goethe)
