Thought for the Day!

Every night I try to think of three things in the day that has passed that I can give thanks for.

Sometimes it requires a bit of a struggle because something may have Happened that has obscured any sense of gratitude.

*However there are always at least three things to be grateful for.
The little bit of wisdom the ‘gratitude is often the shortest-lived emotion’*

*Has forced me to dwell on those things I give thanks for,
Rather than swallow them quickly
I savour them and dwell on them.*

*I’ve often give this bit of advice to people who are struggling
With a spot of depression and they’ve come back to me to say ‘thank you.’*
