REFLECTION

I think there is something truly beautiful when someone:

Feels that who they are & where they are is enough:

That they no longer feel the pressure to strive for standards that someone else has set.

Someone who says, "I like being here, just here, and that here feels enough for me."

For here there is space for slowness, for feeling, for breathing, for living, for being, and for acceptance.

Creating their own definition of enough.

~Helen Marie

Find out what makes you kinder,
What opens you up and brings out the most loving, generous, and unafraid version of you and go after those things as if nothing else matters.
Because nothing else does.

~George Saunders

Coiste Forbartha na Sceilge

Coiste Forbartha na Sceilge are delighted to be representing Kerry in the national Pride of Place awards for 2024. This is a great honour for the Ballinskelligs Community and is in recognition of the achievements and projects that have been undertaken in Ballinskelligs over the last number of years. The judging panel will be with us shortly and the National Final is in Monaghan in November.
