PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest: Let us bring our prayers before the Lord trusting not in our gown good works, but in his mercy.

1. For the Church throughout the world, especially where her members suffer persecution, that the Lord may watch over and protect them. Lord, hear us.
2. For migrants and refugees, that leaders and authorities may assist those in need and nations and communities may welcome those fleeing from war or oppression. Lord, hear us.
3. For farmers and those working on the land that they may do so in safety and rejoice in a bountiful harvest. Lord, hear us.
4. For all gathered here: that we may have the humility and courage to seek forgiveness of those we have offended. Lord, hear us.
5. For our loved ones who have died, that they may rest in the peace of God. Lord, hear us.
5. For our own special needs. Lord, hear us.

Priest: Heavenly Father, in your great mercy hear our prayers and direct our hearts to accept and do your will in imitation of your Son Our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

REFLECTION

"As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways, my thoughts above your thoughts," says the Lord. Lord, open our minds and enlarge our hearts, so that we think more like you, and act more like you. Let us not begrudge your goodness to others, knowing that we too are underserving of your favours, and stand more in need of your mercy than of your justice.

FINAL BLESSING

May you treat each other in the same friendly way Christ has treated you. May you clothe yourselves in sincere compassion, kindness and patience. May your love not be mere words but something real and active.

"Anything enjoyable is either immoral, illegal, or fattening". (Mae West)
