In the Name of Jesus?

The disciples come to Jesus with a problem. Their spokesperson is John, one of the two ambitious brothers who wanted the top positions. This time he wants the group of disciples to have the sole rights to Jesus — something like a monopoly to speak and act on his behalf. They're annoyed that an exorcist who was not one of their group was casting out demons in Jesus' name. Even if some people were actually being cured the disciples could only think about the prestige of their own group. That's why they want to nip his activity of this outsider in the bud, because: 'He's not one of us'.

Mistakenly, they take it for granted that, in order to act in Jesus' name and harness his healing power, you have to be a member of his group. No one can use the name Jesus without being an accredited member of the Church. But is that really so? What does Jesus himself say?

His words are crystal clear: 'You must not stop him'. The name of Jesus and his humanizing power are more important than the prestige of his disciples. It's good that the salvation brought by Jesus extends way beyond the established Church and helps people live more humanly.

No one should see it as an unfriendly competition. Jesus has not set up his group to control his messianic salvation. He's not a rabbi of a closed school, but a Prophet of a salvation that is open to everyone. His Church must support his Name wherever it's invoked to do good. Jesus doesn't want us to talk about "us and them," those who can act in his name and those who can't. His way of seeing things is generous and broad: 'Anyone who is not against us is for us'.

In today's society there are many who work for a more just and human world without belonging to the Church. Some aren't believers, but they are opening up pathways to God's reign and God's justice. They're on our side. We need to rejoice instead of looking at them with resentment. We need to support them, not discredit them.

Season of Creation

September 1st – October 4th 2024

"To hope and act with creation"

Earth Mother

*My soil alive
with a universe of lives and every life connected one hundred thousand times, root and fungi,
worm and slug and nematode, tiny pulses of scurrying flame all busy at my work
of making and unmaking, every day a breath of sunshine, every night a letting go, every spring a burgeoning, one hundred thousand seeds unfurling greedily into the greening light every summer a busyness, petal and bee and birdsong, birth in the air and under,
a fertile heaving hunger every autumn a letting go, berry and seed and acorn, leaves turning, flaming, falling into winter's busy rest, one hundred thousand wounds to weave and stitch and mend.*
