THE VOICES OF A YOUNG CHURCH

What a gathering in Caherdaniel last Sunday to see the children from the school gather so beautifully with family and friends for what will be the annual blessing of the school bags. This weekend sees the churches of Dromod/Waterville come alive as we welcome among us the children from Cillín Liath NS & St Finian's NS to our weekend masses. We ask Jesus to bless you all for the year ahead, and to bless those who generously and lovingly support you along the paths of education and of faith.

To all the Youth of our Parishes ...

Pope Francis spoke to young people back in March this year, and he said to them "we need more than ever to draw upon your creativity in order to explore new paths, always in fidelity to our roots". In other words boys and girls, our Church NEEDS YOU! We often say to young people, you are our future, but you are not our future, you are our PRESENT. In my experiences in visiting you at school, you have shared your giftedness, your talents, your faith, and for this I welcome you to always feel part of our parish community! As Parish we continue to pray for you all, your families and your school community!

Mol an Óige agus tiocfaidh sí! 😊

Moving Forward in Hope

Bishop Ray's Pastoral Letter

There is a Pastoral Letter from Bishop Ray which provides an overview of the ongoing journey within the diocese this year. It also outlines the next steps for parishes and pastoral areas. Copies are available at the back of the churches. Please take one to read and be part of this exciting time for our Parishes as we move forward in hope.
