Just a Thought..... 'It is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved'. ~ Tennyson

Jesus predicts his passion and death. Passion involves both love and suffering. Henri Nouwen once wrote that 'Every time we make the decision to love someone, we open ourselves to great suffering, because of those we most love cause us not only great joy but also great pain. If we want to avoid suffering, we will never experience the joy of loving. If you genuinely love something or someone, then you must be willing to suffer for it.' That is the invitation that Jesus extends to us~ Fr Gerard.

The Parish Office will be open from 10am- 1.00pm Wednesday and Thursday for this week only. Back to normal opening times next week.

Fr. Jerry Keane will bring Communion to the elderly on Wednesday 25th September at the usual time.

Reconnecting with Services Day 2024 For Older Persons takes place on 10th October in The Listowel Arms from 10.00am to 2.00pm – This year's theme is Personal and Home Safety, and there will be speakers from An Garda, HSE, Fire Service and many more. There will be a host of Information Stands from Various Agencies. There will be Tea/Coffee and Scones provided. The Event is FREE however, Booking is Essential (No Walk-In).

St Killian was born in Mullagh, Co. Cavan in 640 AD, left Ireland from Killmacilloge, Tuosist Parish, Diocese of Kerry, and was martyred in Wurzburg, Germany in 689. His relics are visiting Mullagh and Cavan on Thurs Oct 3rd to Sun 6th, with the days marked by Masses, processions, a concert, and times for veneration. You might like to be part of the historic visit – Mullagh is about an hour from Dublin and 15 mins from Kells Co. Meath. The programme of events is available on www.kilmorediocese.ie on on facebook at St Killians Heritage Centre. St Killian, Pray for us. Please see details on notice board
