Just a Thought..... Anyone who is not against us is for us

Today's readings teach us that we are free from the belief that we are the only ones representing God in this world. God is just not interested in labels: Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Muslim etc. He is underlining the great truth that the essence of following Jesus is found in the way we LIVE love. Very simple, but how very demanding. Love alone counts.

A simple Taize chant puts it this way: 'Where there is love, there is God'.

The real challenge of the Gospel is whether we accept that the spirit of God today works wherever God wishes and through whomsoever is chosen. ~ Fr Gerard.

Fr Gerard Finucane will bring First Friday Communion to the elderly on Friday 4th October at the usual time. Please inform relatives and friends.

This Sunday is World Day of Migrants & Refugees. Established in 1914 this special day marked annually, serves as a reminder to pray, reflect, and take action for those who have been forced to leave their homes in search of safety, dignity and a better future.

The Priests of The Pastoral Area would like to thank you all for your continuing support of their Autumn Collection. May our Lady protect you all as we head into these Autumn days.
