

Fossa Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee offer "C ad Mille F aile" to all our visitors. We invite you to consider supporting the upkeep of our Christ, the Prince of Peace Church and grounds by means of our "Donate a Slate" campaign as outlined in the Porch. Mile bu ochas.

PRAYERS OF THE FAITHFUL

Priest: Let us bring our prayers before the Lord trusting not in our own good works, but in his mercy.

1. For the Church throughout the world, especially where her members suffer persecution, that the Lord may watch over and protect them. Lord, hear us.
2. For migrants and refugees, that leaders and authorities may assist those in need and nations and communities may welcome those fleeing from war or oppression. Lord, hear us.
3. For farmers and those working on the land that they may do so in safety and rejoice in a bountiful harvest. Lord, hear us.
4. For Christians: that our lives may bear witness to the faith we profess with our lips. Lord, hear us.
5. For our loved ones who have died, especially Nellie Boggins, (nee Cronin,) Ardshanavooley and late of Aghadoe, that they may rest in the peace of God. Lord, hear us.
6. For our own special needs. Lord, hear us.

Priest: Heavenly Father, in your great mercy hear our prayers and direct our hearts to accept and do your will in imitation of your Son Our Lord Jesus Christ who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.

REFLECTION

Two words that we use very frequently are the words “yes” and “no”. In general “yes” and “no” are morning words. However, as the day passes, we can be moved to turn a morning “no” into an evening “yes”. But the earlier we do this, the better, because the night is coming when no one can work. Lord, grant that the night may not come upon us with our work undone and our promises unkept.

FINAL BLESSING

May you never allow words to take the place of deeds.
 May the God, who has called us to eternal glory in Christ, strengthen and support you with his grace.
 And may the peace of Christ reign in your mind and in your hearts.
