Praying for the Dead! Tens of thousands of children have lost their lives because of war this year, many of them in the Holy Land where the tragedy continues. This November as we remember loved ones and all who have died, Pope Francis has asked Catholics to pray especially for parents who mourn the loss of a child. There can hardly be greater grief for a parent than standing by the grave of their offspring. For such bereaved families and for all who have lost loved ones, praying for the dead, provides both consolation and healing. Our prayers for the dead remain the great lifeline between those of us who are alive and those who are now gone home to God. When the dying St Monica said to her son Augustine, ‘all I ask is that you remember me at the altar of God’ it was recognition that prayer remains an unbreakable bond between the living and the dead. It ensures that as long as we remain live, they too live as part of us. Paul Clayton-Lea.
