About Today
 Gathering together in the Lord's house, we bring simple gifts into God's presence – our love, our care for each other, our worshipping hearts and voices. We ask for the grace to continue to show love through the coming week. As we prepare to celebrate, let us call to mind moments when God's grace lifted us up this week, and moments when our failings let us down.

Prayer
 God, our provider, you are the orphan's hope and the widow's bread. Strengthen our faith, that with simplicity of heart we may come to trust in you alone and hold back nothing in serving you. Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Introduction to the Scripture Readings
1 Kings 17:10-16 — A poor widow's hospitality to Elijah the prophet is rewarded.
Hebrews 9:24-28 — Christ offers his sacrifice once and for all. When he comes in glory, he will reward those who wait for him.
Mark 12:38-44 — Unlike the showy religious leaders, the poor widow gives with generosity of heart.

Seeing Your Life Through The Lens Of The Gospel,
 1. The scribes are presented as ostentatious and devious, acting more out of self-interest than the love of God or people. There can be a element of self-interest in each of us. Perhaps there have been times when you have been disturbed by glimpsing in yourself 'other motives' in your doing good. Recall when you were awakened to this fact. Where was the good news for you in that awakening?

2. In material terms what the widow had to offer was very little. Recall when you felt yourself called to give and gave even though you apparently had very little. Perhaps you have had the experience of finding that what you thought was little and insignificant meant a great deal to another person. Recall some of those moments.

3. At this critical moment for the church Pope Francis has called a synod and has invited all believers to make a contribution. It's easy for us to see this as a call to professional church people, clergy and religious. They have always taken care of this kind of thing. Now the call is that the voices of the little ones can also be heard. How can you help this to happen in your church community?

Remembering Our Dead
November Masses & Evening prayer
Mass for the Holy Souls and those remembered on the All Souls Lists, will be celebrated in Glenbeigh on Saturday 2nd November and on the Monday evenings of the month of November. 4th, 11th/18th/25th. All these Masses will be celebrated at 7:30 pm.
Masses for the Holy Souls and those remembered on the All Souls Lists in Glencar will be celebrated at 6 p.m. on Saturday 2nd November and on the Saturday evenings of the 9th /16th./23rd November.
At the Mass on Monday 25th November parishioners who died since last November will be especially remembered. A candle in their memory will be brought to the sanctuary and placed on a stand before the Altar during the Mass.
Please Collect your November Envelope at the back of the Church and return it in time for these celebrations.
I ask all Clubs and Organisations not to have their events clash with these November Masses for our dead; and the Saturday Evening Mass in Glencar and Sunday Morning Mass in Glenbeigh at any time. Thank You.

Thought for the Day
 It has been traditional in Ireland to regard the dead as very close to us who are living. Peig Sayers, a traditional storyteller who lived on the Great Blasket island off the Kerry coast was once asked where heaven was. In reply she said it was just a few inches above the head of the tallest man on the island. Heaven and earth, like life and death were one in the traditional way of thinking.
 The great medieval mystic known as Meister Eckhart when asked where the soul goes after death said, 'No place. Where else would the soul be going, where else is the eternal world? It can be nowhere other than here.'
