About Today

We celebrate the feast of Christ the King today, acclaiming Jesus as our king, the one who died for us and rose triumphant. We offer praise and worship — and ask for the grace to live as worthy citizens of his kingdom of justice, truth, love and peace.

Almighty and eternal God, to Jesus Christ, the firstborn from the dead, you have granted everlasting dominion and a kingship that shall not pass away. Remove from us every desire for privilege and power, that we may imitate the sacrificial love of Christ our King and, as a royal and priestly people, serve you humbly in our brothers and sisters.

Grant this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever.

Introduction to the Scripture Readings

Daniel 7:13-14 — Daniel's vision shows a man becoming king in heaven. Christians believe this prophecy refers to Jesus.

Apocalypse 1:5-8 — The author of Apocalypse presents Jesus as the ruler of the kings of the earth, who will come in glory.

John 18:33-37 — Jesus debates his kingship with Pilate, and commits his followers to stand on the side of truth.

Seeing Your Life Through The Lens Of The Gospel,

1. The feast we have today, and the gospel, give us an opportunity to reflect on the different ways in which we, and others, exercise influence and leadership. The authority of Pilate came from position and power. The authority of Jesus came from his integrity and what he stood for. Recall leaders you have known whose influence was like that of Jesus (teachers, community leaders, family members).

2. The values of the kingdom of God cannot be imposed. It is never a matter of fighting battles, or forcing others into compliance. Perhaps through experience you have learned the limitations of the use of force, as a parent, a teacher, a group leader. What has been the good news, the learnings for you, in this?

3. Jesus came to bear witness to the truth and we are all created for a purpose. Who are today's witnesses to truth in the world? Who are the people whose witness to truth has impressed you, either now or in the past? In what way have you been able to be a witness to truth? What was it like for you to be such a witness?

Remembering Our Dead

November Masses & Evening prayer

At the Mass on Monday 25th November parishioners who died since last November will be especially remembered.

A candle in their memory will be brought to the sanctuary and placed on a stand before the Altar at the beginning of the Mass. The family member who is bringing the candle in memory of their loved one please be at the back of the church no later than 7:00 pm. collect their candle.

I ask all Clubs and Organisations not to have their events clash with November Masses for our dead; and the Saturday Evening Mass in Glencar and Sunday Morning Mass in Glenbeigh at any time . Thank You .

Though for the Day

Often, we light candles as a sign of remembering and, like the remembrance of God, we do something too. As we light the candle we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvellous light of heaven. The candlelight reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope that we carry with others. When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a kind word can mean a lot. It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of darkness but each time it is shared, it is not halved but doubled. Together we really can make a difference.

Diocesan Collection The annual diocesan collection for Kerry Diocesan Youth Service will be taken up at all Masses next weekend.

Walking on the Road by day wear a High Vis Jacket. Walking on the Road at night wear a High Vis Jacket and use a torch to light your way.

A General Election Statement By Bishop Ray

“Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right;

They shall be satisfied.

Happy the peacemakers:

They shall be called children of God “(Mt.5:) Copies available at the back of the Church
