"A Rí an Domhnaigh" – King of Sunday

This beautiful hymn with lyrics written by Tomás Rua Ó Súilleabháin (1785-1848) invites us this Sunday into the heart of what we celebrate on the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. While attending school in Dublin Tomás Rua became seriously ill and was sent to the fever hospital in Cork Street. Fearful and lonely he penned this heartfelt plea to Jesus, Mary, St Brigid and he saw the advent of spring as a sign of hope and relief. We too as parishes see the advent of a new liturgical year. We turn this Sunday and every Sunday to Jesus, King of Sunday, but indeed our Ri na Seachtaine, our King in every moment of our lives. Let us never forget, we are sons and daughters of a King, let us accept the royal invitation.

A Rí an Domhnaigh tar le cabhair chugaim, is tóg in am ón bpéin mé.

O King of Sunday, come to me with help, and take me away from pain.

Dromod Parish: As we are approaching the end of 2024, the new time sheets for 2025 for the different areas in the churches, are being renewed. For the church cleaners, readers, eucharistic ministers and sacristans, if anyone would like to change the months that they are usually scheduled for, will you please contact the office so that the new time sheets can be adjusted accordingly. If anyone new would like to be added to any of these lists, you are most welcome. Each of the new time sheets will be available mid-December so that we can plan for 2025. A sincere thank you to all who have helped over the past year. It would have been very difficult without all the volunteers and help we received during the year, so a sincere thanks to everyone.
