A NOTE FROM FR JIM.....

This weekend we're celebrating the last Sunday of the liturgical year and it's a Solemnity called 'Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe' which was instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1925. Pope Pius at the time could see major cultural, political and philosophical attitudes developing which were very anti-Christian and anti-human. At the time there were incredibly dark forces sweeping across Europe and the world such as "Nationalism" "Communism" "Nazism" and "Liberalism". All of these ideologies were based on writings from the likes of atheist philosophers such as Meslier, Holbach and Feuerbach and perhaps the most influential of all was a man called Friedrich Nietzsche. Nietzsche proclaimed the death of God. For him if human life is to have any value or meaning, then, it is the superman, who will redeem mankind's existence. They believed like many of the powerful men throughout history that salvation can be found outside of God and humanity can save itself. They also believed like Hitler that they could create an everlasting kingdom. In today's Gospel as Jesus stands beside the Roman Governor of Judea Pontius Pilate we see the two orders or the two worlds side by side. The world with God and a world without God. One has an eternal future the other have their days numbered. Last Sunday we heard Jesus say, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away". Even in the age of the Church say the past 2000 years so many empires have come and gone. For example the Roman, the Byzantine, the Ottoman, the British and the Spanish just to name a few. These were powerful civilisations and powers with great military capabilities and yet they've all come and gone. The important thing to remember is this, 'things' don't last. Good times and bad times come and go. Jesus Christ is the King and only His Kingdom will last forever. Anything outside of His Kingdom will pass away and will be ultimately meaningless. It's only by living in Jesus' Kingdom as described in the Preface of the mass 'an eternal and universal kingdom, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love and peace. May we as a Church today never fear, just remain faithful to Christ the King and realise only his Kingdom lasts forever.
