Éigse Seán Ó Súilleabháin 2024 is a social history project, called Keeping the Past Alive – We will be having our next townland meeting at Lauragh Community Centre on Sunday December 1st, focusing on Glentrasna, Glenrastel and Shinnaugh. We will be looking at the census forms from 1901 and discussing those records, and linking to current families and homes on the map. Please join us if you are interested, and share this notice to people you know, particularly those who are older, and might have known some of the people from these areas in their youth.

Bishop Ray has issued a statement on next Friday's General Election, which you can read on the diocesan website: www.dioceseofkerry.ie

The last Kenmare Memory Café of 2024 will be hosted at Brook Lane Hotel on Tuesday 26th November from 11.00 a.m. to 12.30. The Guest Speaker will be Amanda Keane from Age Friendly Ireland. Refreshments will be served and live music will be provided by Suzanne & Tracy. The cafe provides a warm and welcoming place for people to meet others also living with dementia/cognitive impairment, their carers, and health & social care professionals.

Lauragh NS will be holding a Christmas Raffle to raise funds for the school. Tickets will be available to purchase from parents, members of staff and the Board of Management.
