REFLECTION

It has been traditional in Ireland to regard the dead as very close to us who are living.

Peig Sayers, a traditional storyteller who lived on the Great Blasket island off the Kerry coast was once asked where heaven was. In reply she said it was just a few inches above the head of the tallest man on the island. Heaven and earth, like life and death were one in the traditional way of thinking.

The great medieval mystic known as Meister Eckhart when asked where the soul goes after death said, 'No place. Where else would the soul be going, where else is the eternal world? It can be nowhere other than here.' ~ Sr Stanislaus Kennedy

Looking backward,

I am filled with gratitude.

Looking forward,

I am filled with vision.

Looking upward,

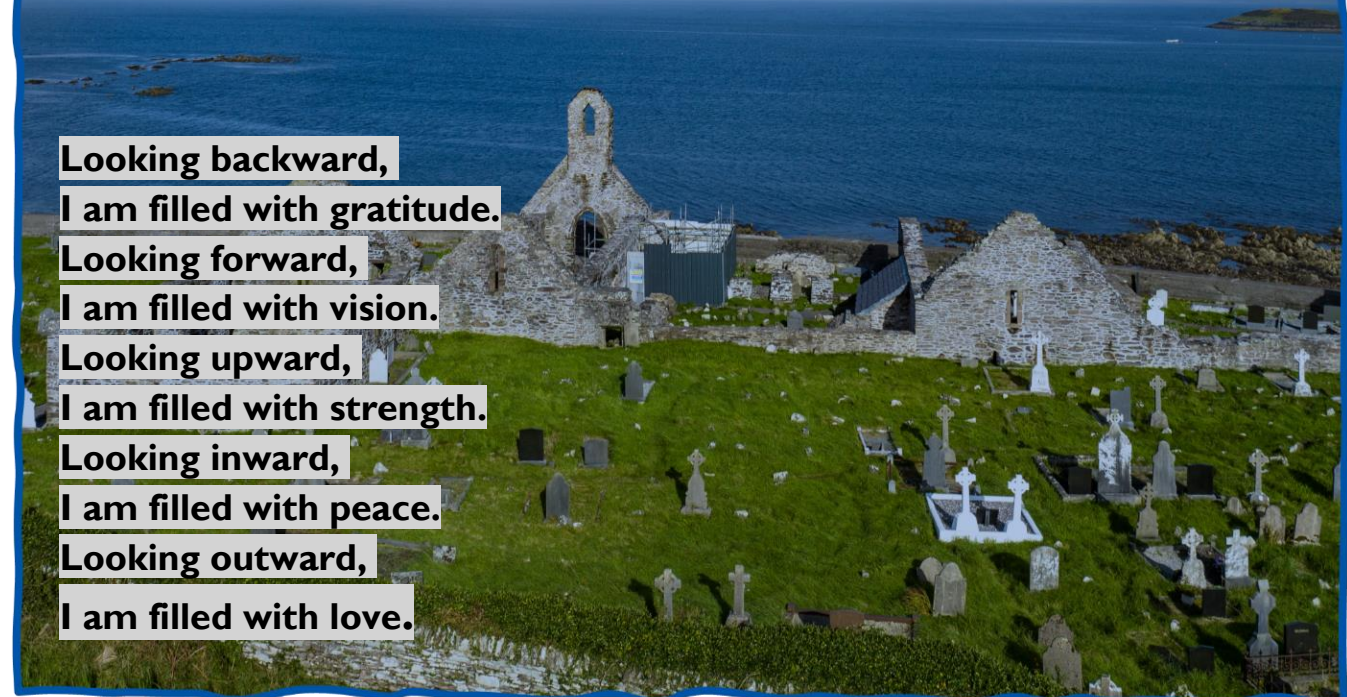

I am filled with strength.

Looking inward,

I am filled with peace.

Looking outward,

I am filled with love.
