Coming home for Christmas.

At Christmas we will be celebrating the good news that God has made his home among us, in and through his son, who remains with us until the end of time. Advent invites us to set out on a journey home to God. Over the last year we may have distanced ourselves from the Lord. Perhaps we have experienced life as something of a wilderness. In that wilderness we may have felt that God was distant from us and we, in turn, may have grown distant from the Lord. This Sunday, a voice cries in the wilderness, the voice of the Lord, calling us to come home, to journey towards him.
