Just a thought: In the aftermath of Christmas and the New Year, came our first challenge of 2025. Continuous snow, frost and freezing temperatures caused unbridled chaos and upheaval, imprisoning people in their homes, smaller rural communities in particular were left feeling isolated and adrift. But not for long, as our very own and very welcome angels of mercy came promptly to the rescue, saving not only the day but our sanity as well. They winged their way in adverse weather conditions, not just dropping off staples and fuel to our doors but delivering peace of mind and restoring our equilibrium too. Humanity at its best. Our 'Meitheal' forefathers would be so proud and pleased to see that the needs of those who came after them were being catered for in the now 2025. With the same neighbourliness, innate good will and support, offered in the fadó fadó. These unassuming men and women of the hour braved the elements to serve their fellow human beings, are heroes to their townlanders and all those who benefited from their goodness. May the plenty and the peace of mind that you delivered selflessly and in abundance to our homes be your and yours for evermore.

"OLD TRADITIONS DIE HARD" and the "MILK OF HUMAN KINDNESS" is alive and well in our Parish in 2025. Community spirit abú.
